

When to WASH YOUR HANDS

After blowing your nose, or coughing and sneezing into your hands.

After going to the washroom.

Before and after handling food.

Before eating or drinking.

After playing outside.

After playing with animals.

After handling garbage.

If hands look or feel dirty.

After visiting a public place.

